2 ways to get to the Kuinder Room from Schiphol airport:

- Via Amsterdam RAI trainstation

Buy a train ticket to station Amsterdam Rai. The train leaves normally from platform 1 or 2 at the airport. Amsterdam Rai is the second stop from the airport. Trains go 4 times /hour and it will take 11 minutes.

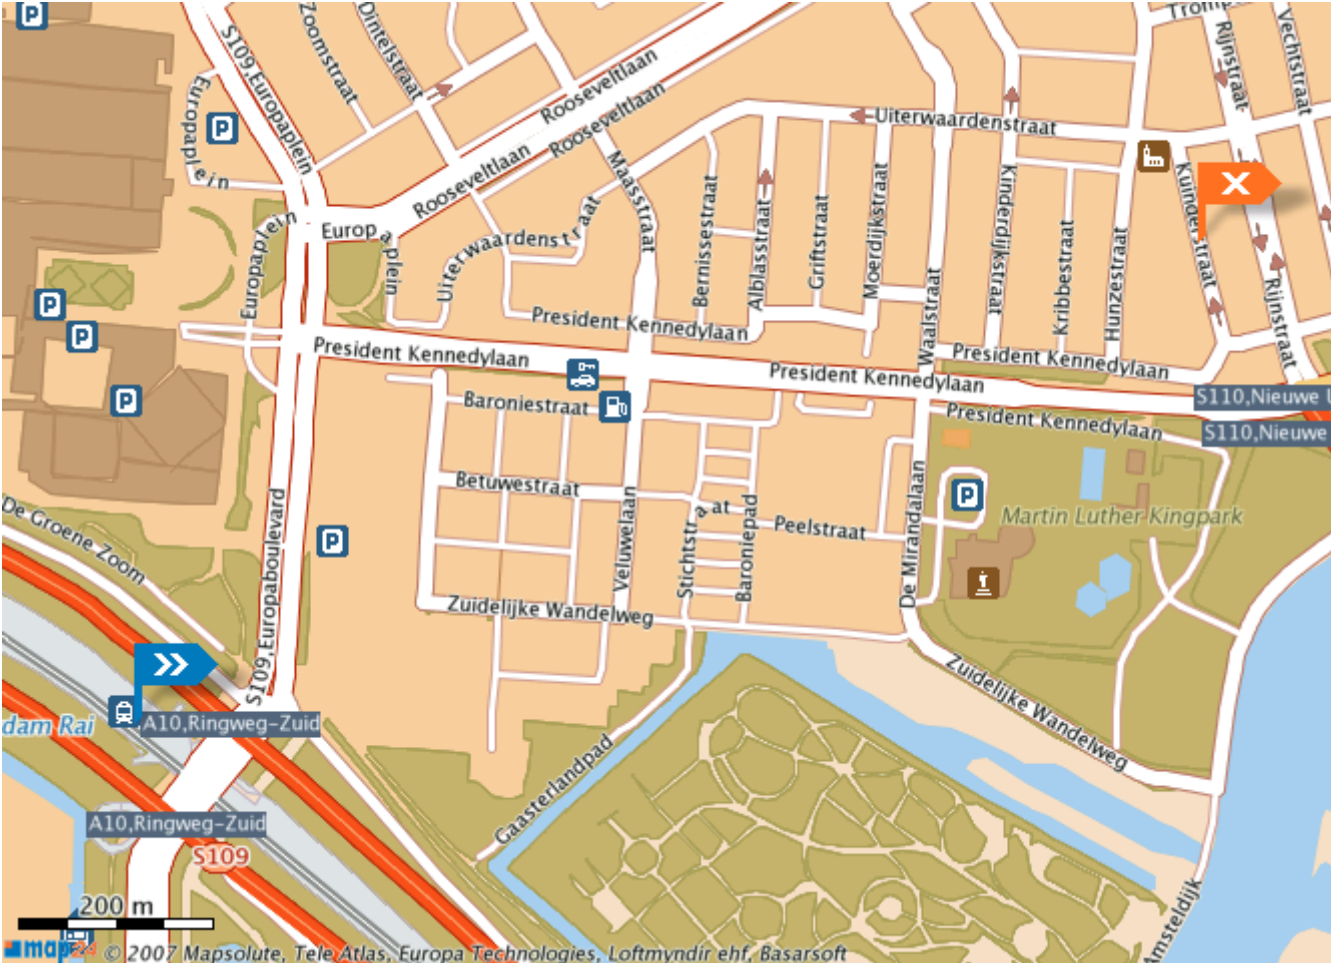

From RAI station you have a couple of options to get to the Kuinder Room:

- Take tram 4 and get off at stop VICTORIEPLEIN and change to tram 25 ( other side of street ) southbound ( direction: President Kennedylaan) and get off at the end station President Kennedylaan. Or you can walk from the Victorieplein to the Kuinderstraat.
- Walk from RAI station to the Kuinder Room in 20 minutes.

- Via Amsterdam Central Station:

Take a train from Schiphol Airport to Amsterdam Central Station. Take tram 25 from Central Station. You have to go all the way to the final destination (Stop: President Kennedylaan). From that end stop you look into the Kuinderstraat and it is 1 minute walking ( see maps ). The tram ride will take about 35 minutes because line 25 is going zig zag through the city. Alternatively you could take tram line 4 and get off at stop VICTORIEPLEIN. From there it is an 8 minute walk to the Kuinder Room ( See maps ).

Walk from RAI station to the Kuinderstraat ( blue flag = RAI , orange flag = Kuinderstraat )
